DEDICATION

Dr. Paul W. Dawson

For his years of devotion to Dentistry, excellence as an operator, high standard of ethics, valued guidance and friendship, we respectfully dedicate the 1942 Dentos.

Faculty

---

Informed and inspired by a most capable faculty, the members of the Class of 1942 go forth into their chosen profession with confidence and courage. With the deepest gratitude they extend their appreciation to all those men who have contributed towards their education.

Administration

SAMUEL KNOX WILSON, S.J.
President

Like a navigator who has piloted a ship across the pathless ocean to its home port, our administrators have efficiently and successfully guided the Class of '42 through the sea of dental education to the coveted degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery.

In Appreciation

Dr. Kendall, we the Class of '42 are sincerely grateful for all you have taught us. Our school days were made pleasant by your friendliness and understanding of each of us. Your bits of humor brightened many dull days. We regret that future classes at C.C. D.S. will miss those splendid hours we spent at your lectures. We hope that the Lord has willed you many years of joy and contentment in return for your many years of faithful teaching.

Dr. John L. Kendall

The Years Activities

---

On the fairways, the hardwood, the dance floor and in the meeting rooms, the students enjoyed a banner year. It is hoped that the following words and pictures will in the years to come, recall some of the good times and important events of a very successful year of activities.

Opening Exercises

Tuesday evening September 30, 1941 the 59th year of dental education began at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery. Fathers, mothers, wives, and sweethearts escorted their proud dental neophytes to this night of opening exercises. The freshmen could be easily detected by their fearful looks and alternately pale, then blushing cheeks. The sophomores were rejoicing over meeting their classmotes after a four months vacation. The juniors seemed to be trying to make a good impression and were unusually subdued. The seniors were serious and worried over the selective service and were anxious to hear what information the dean might have on the latest plan for dental students.

At 8:15 P.M. the faculty entered and silence prevailed. Dean Logan presided in his usual impressive manner and answered the questions that were foremost in our minds by telling us that in all probability the students would be allowed to finish their schooling before entering the service.

With minds relaxed and worries seemingly over, everyone sat contentedly listening to Dr. P. G. Puterbaugh's excellent words of advice. He warned new men about what was before them and advised them of the pitfalls which they might encounter.

Schedules were passed out to the students and the year of 1941-42 was under way.

Welcome George!

Neophytes Arriving for Opening Exercises.

The appointment of Co-Editors and Co-Business Managers marked the return of the Dentos to publication after a years' lapse. Enthusiasm ran high and plans were swiftly drawn up. Faced with a limited budget the staff has made every effort to present a book that is distinctive in its simplicity and professional attitude.

"Hands", the most important instrument to any dentist are featured in some original and novel designs. These were arranged and photographed by our staff photographers, John Smejkal and Joe Shor who along with Root Studios took all of the pictures in the book. The cover and its design are different from anything ever attempted before in Dentos history. It lends a modern touch that has interest and appeal. The color plan attempts to convey the cool, calm attitude and dignity of the profession.

The cooperation of Dr. Robert McNulty and Dr. Warren Willman, financial and editorial advisors was deeply appreciated. Their counsel and assistance played an important part in making this publication possible.

Much credit is due the business managers and their assistants. Neglia and Guerrieri did a fine job assisting Bartz and Hopkins in making the Dentos a financial success. Matousek as art editor and Bennett as circulation manager along with George, Shaheen and Black as class editors all did a splendid piece of work in producing a book of which the school may be proud.

The assistance of Mr. Norman Koenig of the Pontiac Engraving Company, Mr. Oliver Rogers of the Rogers Printing Company and Mr. J. Roche of the Root Studio was immeasurable, and unlimited credit is due them for their unstinted effort in making this Dentos possible.

Blackout

With the treacherous attack of the Japanese upon the United States on December 7th, 1941, our country and all of its people were plunged into a figurative blackout. There is now but one thing to work for and that is victory. Like everyone else, the dental student must take his place in the all-out effort.

Fortunately for the students at C.C.D.S. Dean Logan who was Chief of the Dental Corps in the World War I has been available for counsel and guidance in facing our problems. Every effort has been made to keep the students in school realizing that they will be of far greater service to their country as trained dentists than as Selectees.

Late in February the U. S. Navy Medical Officers came to the school and gave physical examinations to many students who desired appointments to commission (provisional) as Ensigns. Under this plan the student is allowed to finish school before he is called to active duty. When called, he will be promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Junior Grade. As yet the Army has not provided a program for the dental student other than the draft but it is hoped that they soon will adopt a similar plan such as the Navy's.

Although our private plans for the future were blacked out in the smoke of Pearl Harbor, we were ready and willing to take our place and do our part to bring a speedy victory to the United States.

Senior Dance

Friday, December fifth, nineteen hundred and forty-one! This date brings to mind pleasant memories. It marked the opening of the school social calendar. On this evening the seniors sponsored their annual informal dance. As seemed to be the custom, the Columbia Yacht Club was the scene of the affair and Steve Wayne's orchestra furnished the music.

It is remembered as one of the finest social activities of our school life, a success because of the able leadership of Wilbur Mayo. As through life when we page this dentos, and recall the Senior Dance the following memories will come back to us. Dean Logan's splendid waltzing, Greenbaums's and Lambert's impromptu floor shows, Maskal's eighteen year old hospitality, and the comradeship of all present.

1942 Smokers

With the beginning of a new school year and a new freshman class, fraternities immediately laid shrewd plans for rushing. Basement talk and social calls all helped to lead up to the freshman fraternity smokers. The Zips proudly took a large group of prospects to the Panther Room of the Sherman Hotel. The A.O.'s invited their men to a dinner at the Congress Hotel. Tradition ruled and the Delts once again entertained the freshmen at Harry's New Yorker where a fine dinner and floor show furnished a splendid evening.

Following much plotting and inside talk, pledge day arrived. On the 17th day of December the fraternity men gathered in their respective rooms and waited nervously for their so called "sure men" to come. Results of the hectic day proved successful for all of the fraternities involved.

1942 Dance

The sophomore class dance was held on Friday evening January 30th, at the Lake Shore Athletic Club and was acclaimed by all those who attended to be the finest social affair held so far this year. The beautiful ballroom was the scene of the merrymaking and Pete Cook's orchestra furnished the musical background.

The committee that worked so hard in preparation for the dance must be congratulated upon the splendid job they turned in. Credit goes to Edward Graves, Elbert King, William Friedman, John Krol, Eymard Doyle and president Edward Shaheen who lent an untiring hand to the committee.

The Lambda Chapter of Xi Psi Phi is a brotherhood of students chosen from those who have made their decision for a career in the practice of dentistry. It was organized for the purpose of providing a better, more substantial foundation on which to build a successful professional life, for the purpose of creating a desire for a cleaner, healthier, more wholesome atmosphere in which to live, and for the purpose of developing an appreciation of the wonderful quality of friendship, hospitality and adopting these aims as a life endeavor.

Our fraternity declares that the brotherhood established, through the years is based on a simple understanding which honors the principles of Knowledge, Morality, and Friendship. With these principles in view we endeavor to create a closer understanding amongst the student body.

It is also our contention that such basic principles will fortify and guard us against prevailing adversaries. It will also provide stalwart, courageous men for our country.

Now in passing, we wish to extend to our Faculty members and advisors our sincere thanks. To Dr. J. Vlk and Dr. H. Oppice, our faculty advisors and Drs. Pendleton, Coolidge and Fouser whom we are greatly indebted for the cooperation and help they extended to us in making our fraternity a lasting institution.

"Alpha Omega Fraternity shall be a Dental Fraternity, the student members of which shall be selected from the undergraduate students of high scholarship on the basis of Character, Leadership and Personality."

With this utopian plan in mind four students at the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery met one auspicious day in 1907 and drew up the Creed of Alpha Omega.

With these same sentiments in mind the Alpha Lambda Chapter of Alpha Omega was founded at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery in 1932.

Under the friendly guidance of advisors S. Albert Siegel and Arno Leshin, Alpha Lambda has grown to one of the most respected of the thirty-two chapters comprising this lusty organization.

Bimonthly meetings held at the Professional schools Y. M. C. A. were enlivened by the loquacious presence of Praetor Arno Leshin and by numerous clinics presented by the more proficient fraters. The social calendar included a Pledge Smoker at the Hamilton Club and a Pledge Dance at the Morrison Hotel. Plans for the future provide for a lavish Senior Send-off Formal.

This year the chapter loses seven men via graduation: fraters Bloom, Greenbaum, Gordon, Jastromb, Resnik, Shor and Trace. This will leave but five active members functioning under the Chancellorship of Frater Kaye, however, much hope for a brilliant future is staked in the large pledge body.

Delta Sigma Delta, professional dental fraternity, was founded in 1882 in the college of Dental Surgery of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, by nine men who realized the importance of professional association. On March twenty-fourth, 1885, Beta chapter was established at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery. In the same year the Supreme chapter was organized for graduates in dentistry.

The official publication of the fraternity is the quarterly 'Desmos'. It maintains close contact between all the members and chapters in our country as well as those chapters scattered to the four corners of the earth. Each issue presents articles of interest and scientific importance by members outstanding in their field. Several pages are devoted to notes and news and alumni chapters, and an accurate directory service is maintained.

Beta Chapter holds dinner meetings at the Professional Y. M. C. A. twice each month. All of the meetings are organized by the members, under the supervision of the Deputy Supreme Grand Master, Earl P. Boulger. Of the thirty-three Subordinate Chapters at dental schools across the continent, Beta chapter is the largest, consisting of eighty undergraduate members and pledges.

Outstanding social events of the past year have been a Freshman Smoker held at the summer home of Brother Propati in Fox River Grove; the pledge dinner given at Harry's New Yorker; the Annual Pledge Dance held at the Midland Hotel; the Formal initiation held at the Knickerbocker Hotel; and the climax of all activities, the Spring Formal.

Fifty years ago, forty students at the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, banded together and formed the pioneer chapter of Psi Omega. Alpha Chapter as it was called, now has over two score active sister chapters, with a total membership of over twenty thousand men, the largest Greek Letter dental fraternity in the world.

Successful Psi Omegans can be found all over the world and in all branches of Dentistry. Following the creed of their fraternity, Psi Omegans have been prominent in the advancement and improvement of dentistry.

Our chapter, Kappa, convenes regularly at the Psi Omega house where our Deputy Councilor, Dr. C. K. Dittmer is of the utmost help in guiding us towards our goal, the practice of the profession of dentistry.

The officers this year are: Robert T. Lee, Grand Master and Editor; Harold McGrane, Secretary; August C. King, Treasurer. With this group of men and the able underclassmen, a prominent future is anticipated.

Junior Dance

On Friday night, the sixth of February, the Juniors went "all out" to make their winter informal a huge success.

The very unstable Columbia Yacht Club, rolling freely in a gale, furnished the setting. Joe Curly and his inimitable swing arrangements provided the music.

Everyone was in a gay mood, celebrating the finish of their mid-year examinations. To raise their spirits even higher, many couples wandered below and forward, where beverages were dispensed. After the evening wore on a few of the boys did not react favorably to the stimuli, but this no doubt was due to the incessant rocking of the boat, regardless the sea-going crowd enjoyed one of the finest social events of the year. Hats off to Ralph Pagano, who headed a very capable committee, making this dance an ever memorable one.

Freshman Dance

The Cuspid Capers, sponsored by the Freshman Class, was held on April 17, in the Grand Ballroom of the Midland Hotel. Music for the occasion was furnished by Tony Musso and his band, who highly entertained about one hundred couples.

Much of the success of the dance goes to John O'Connell, who as president of the class headed the dance committee, composed of Black, Wright, Vegter, Zakula and Knitter.

Talent of the class was well expelled during the course of the evening. "Smitty" accompanied by Bielinski entertained a very attentive crowd with a solo on the drums along with singing a few ever popular songs. A sextet composed of Smith, Oppice, O'Connell, Boles Ziolkowski, and Kelleher ended the evening entertainment. Dancing continued till one when parties left all commenting on the social highlight of the year.

Intramural Sports

The program of intramural athletics at C.C.D.S. has always served as a source of good fellowship and this year was no exception. Although increasing academic demands have tended to lessen the intensity of the program, considerable interest has centered about the principle forms of competition: basketball, bowling, golf, and table tennis.

With the need of escape from the realities of today and the importance of physical fitness, the intramural program should meet with even greater approval in the future. Credit for the success of this year's program is due Paul Jason who was director of intramurals. Assisting him were, Guerrieri, R. Pagano, Hayes, and Justen.

Intramural Sports

Intramural basketball came to a colorful conclusion as the Delta Sigma Delta quintet reaped the spoils of victory from the hands of the Xi Psi Phi, Alpha Omega, and Hot Shot aggregations. The latter team consisted of hard fighting independent seniors whose shooting didn't quite live up to their name.

Triumph at home was followed by a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of the Raiders, intramural champions of the Arts campus. This warmly-contested match fell to the Raiders by the slender margin of 22-20. Formal recognition of the Delt court aces will come in the awarding of twelve gold basketballs.

The golf season was highlighted by outings at Rolling Green Country Club and Biltmore Country Club where Andy Sauer copped low honors on both occasions. At the Alumni outing Dick Brehm was low man in the student bracket and has since become a member of the University team.

Blue Key

Founded at University of Florida 1924

Established at Loyola University 1926

Blue Key National Honorary Fraternity objectives are: high scholastic rating, participation in school activities, and popularity with ones fellow students.

It is not secretive, but has for its ideal, the creation of a feeling of good fellowship among non-members. This would not be possible if governed as most fraternities. It has no national installations, fees or dues, but local conditions at the various chapters govern its constitution and by-laws.

Educational tours, debates, etc. are sponsored yearly by other chapters and non-members. It has over fifty chapters some of which are organized in the largest universities in this country.

Honorary membership, this year, to Blue Key Fraternity was awarded to Dr. Warren, professor of Operative Dentistry.

Faculty men who are members of Blue Key include, Drs. W. H. G. Logan, E. P. Boulger, H. A. Hillenbrand, W. N. Kirby, P. T. Dawson, J. F. Svoboda, W. P. Schoen, R. G. Larson and P. S. Faillo.

Alpha Sigma Nu

Founded at Marquette University, 1915

Established at Loyola University, 1938

Alpha Sigma Nu is a national honor society of the Catholic Universities throughout the United States. Since its foundation twenty-seven years ago, it has been a leading undergraduate organization in every university in which it has been established.

The society is designed to honor students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, service, and loyalty to the university; to promote and lend support to such activities which will tend to elevate the intellectual and cultural level of the students; and to strengthen the bonds of friendship and understanding between the faculty and students.

The Loyola chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu was established in 1938. Under the capable guidance of Rev. Thomas A. Egan, S.J., who is now the National Faculty Advisor, the society has exerted a quiet and wholesome influence on undergraduate affairs.

Membership is open annually to two juniors of each college of the university. The selection of the candidates is made by the respective deans of the various colleges, subject to the approval of Rev. Samuel Knox Wilson, S.J., President of Loyola University. These prospective members are then formally initiated at the annual banquet held in the Spring.

The college of dentistry is honored this year by having one of its students, Edmond Perrone, elected to represent Loyola at the national meeting at Detroit on April 17-18.

Alpha Sigma Nu is represented on the faculty of the Dental School by Dr. Truman G. DeWitt.

Undergraduate members in the Dental School are:

Seniors: John T. Moss
Edmond R. Perrone

Juniors: William A. George
Lon V. Porter

Omicron Kappa Upsilon

In 1925, Pi chapter of Omicron Kappa Upsilon was established in the Chicago College of Dental Surgery. Known as the Graduate Honor Society of the Profession, it was founded in 1914 by Drs. Thomas L. Gilmer, Arthur D. Black and C. R. E. Koch at Northwestern University Dental School. These men felt a need for a fraternity "to encourage and develop a spirit of emulation among students in Dentistry and to recognize in an appropriate manner those who have distinguished themselves by a high grade of scholarship."

At the end of the school year a small group of men within the upper twelve per cent of the graduating class are presented with the gold key of this fraternity. This is the highest single honorary award made at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery. A high scholastic standing, outstanding character and citizenship are the fundamental requirements for nomination.

Membership may be conferred upon men who are practitioners and have distinguished themselves through their professional attainments and in their communities. Over three hundred practitioners and graduates of our school have been honored with the gold key of Omicron Kappa Upsilon.

Pi chapter is directed by Dr. W. H. Logan, president; Dr. R. W. McNulty, vice-president; and Dr. P. G. Puterbaugh, secretary-treasurer.

The Classes

On the opposite page, pleasantly smiling, is a tantalizingly familiar face, the result of an experiment that quickly became the mystery of the school year. His name? Well, just call him Oscar, the average senior.

You remember when Shor and Smejkal were competing with Root in the library—the rumors were flying thick and fast, "its for the Navy, the Army, the F.B.I.". However, you were all wrong, the pictures were part of a successful experiment. The net result was a composite picture of every one of the 55 seniors of 1942. Yes, that leering countenance is you, you, and you.

Now when you're out in practice men —

Moskal what would you do?

My what big brown eyes you have!

SENIOR OFFICERS

Back Row—R. IRELAND, Sergeant at Arms, A. KOTECKI, Secretary.

Front Row—J. PIEKOS, Vice-President, J. MOSS, President, W. MAYO, Treasurer.

1939

Cultivation of manual dexterity was only one of the problems of the freshman year. A full schedule of lectures and laboratory work filled our school hours and much earnest study was necessary to absorb and condition all this information. The relation of the basic sciences to dentistry were vague at the time, but they assume importance when we have additional experience.

1940

The realization of our manual incapacibilities were brought to us in our sophomore year. The cultivation of technic was our prime endeavor in the pursuit of the various phases of dentistry. It brought to us a better understanding of that for which we were preparing. The more advanced sciences required our deepest attention and study.

1941

The junior year is weighted with problems of clinical dentistry, the control of pain, control of patient, advancements in speed and technic, and efforts towards perfection. The lecture courses aided us in the correlation of all our knowledge and training to provide us with the proper background. We began to feel and act like dentists.

1942

The endeavor for perfection now occupies us. It is toward the attainment of doing good and of serving as we are best able, that we now strive. The ability to meet and surmount problems of the profession now hold our interest. Our goal is in sight, and our efforts are increased by our own desire to prove capable and worthy in a field where many splendid men have left their mark.

Rotate these Cuspids.

Senior Class Will

We, the graduating class of 1942, of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, Dental Department of Loyola University, now assume the classification of the party of the First Part, having all withstood the severe examination of the most competent psychiatrists are pronounced to be of the highest character, do now declare and bequeath this our last will and testament, to the faculty of our school, hereafter to be called the party of the second part, therefore, without prejudice or malice we offer to:

Dean Logan—A fingernail Buffer or a new coat lapel.

Dr. Puterbaugh—"A plain Spitoon" and a phenol throat spray.

Dr. McNulty—One ten cent bottle of Henna Hair Rinse, and a direct wire to selective service headquarters.

Dr. Glupker—The secret combination to one or two baby girls.

Dr. MacBoyle—One box of, "That Damnoble Sticky Wax," and one pound of ready made ce-ment.

Dr. Willman—One student who will join the Camera Club and a dull explorer to be used on special day.

Dr. Coolidge—A new cabinet for sterile instruments, or an automatic plugger for root canal fillings.

Dr. Pendleton—One set of billiard balls with hair on them, or one gross of proximal explorer points.

Dr. Larsen—A dancing partner for the clinic floor and one blitzkrieg bell remover.

Dr. Vlk—A strong lariat to throw the bull with and one scoop shovel.

Dr. Dawson—A six hundred acre farm to retire from dentistry to, or an air cooled operating room.

Dr. Atkinson—One mole hole in which to hibernate or one package of O. P.'s.

Dr. Boulger—A yellow sweater to wear under the gown and a "Tyrol-ian" hat.

Dr. Wykhuis—One air wheel to be used on the 6th adjustment and some non-blushing powder.

Dr. Svoboda—Seven hundred yards of suturing material or a student that knows what he is doing.

Dr. DeWitt—One fifty gallon barrel of culture medium, and a new battery for his car.

Dr. Kirby—One two way stretch (non-rubber) girdle, or one suit where the pants meet the vest.

Dr. Mueller—One mail sack to pick up the mail, and one box of fresh cigars.

Dr. Zoethout—Any word for the famous, "indeed", and five frogs that will perform all experiments without the aid of any sophomores.

Dr. Meyer—One nurse that will "growl", or a farm run without political help.

Dr. Wessinger—One brand new fedora hat, or a small well equipped laboratory in which to hibernate.

Dr. Johnson—A strictly enforced V diet and a thousand page volume of brand new jokes.

Dr. Weinman—A ten volume publication on how to run a projector machine.

Dr. Sarnat—A fur lined white laboratory gown to run from building to building in.

Dr. Grisamore—A book of exams to give the sophomore class when they should attend some outside function, or one new baseball bat with which to control them.

Dr. Faillo—A research problem interesting to someone besides himself or one copy of how to teach Physiology the easy way.

Dr. Roucek—One electric motor scooter with which to travel around the clinic more rapidly, or a priority rating for a new automobile.

Dr. Kendall—A hundred more years of retirement or a comeback to the dental school.

Dr. Fouser—A dozen new suits, and a bouquet of flowers for the lapels.

Dr. Oppice—An abbreviated lecture: or a hundred pound shipment of chewing gum.

Dr. Michner—One orthodontic patient with twelve anterior teeth or four deciduous bicuspid.

Dr. Orban—A new scientific discovery; or a germ eliminator.

Dr. Kostrubala—The latest edition of the Phormicopia, or an army uniform.

Dr. Hillenbrand—A seat in the U. S. Senate; or a radio station to spread the dental gospel.

Dr. Schoen—A machine for mixing "fluffed" plaster.

Dr. Leshin—A bottle of hair tonic; or a partial toupee.

Dr. Dittmer—A gilded metal for bravery on doing his own extraction work, or one cigar stain remover.

Dr. Holmes—A ten pound box of Fannie May Candies and the latest edition of Emily Post.

Dr. McNeil—One class which will stay awake during lecture and one box of chalk in case they don't.

Senior Sketches

- "Pete" Abramski We wonder if "Can I borrow anything" Abramski has his future office equipped with our instruments?
- "Don" Anderson The ardent bachelor of the senior class, (ot times)lover of boats, golf, swimming, and maybe a girl someday.
- Ray "A. K." Bartz Better known as the "clover king". A good man with the jib, the jigger, the women, and especially shooting the "Bull". The big wheeler of the class and lover of Milwaukee Brew. alias "ensign", alias "starchy", alias "jackrabbit", has a girl who can do 20 an hour, we mean foil dentures, "keep up with me", says the admiral.
- "Davy" Bennett "The Thom McCann Kid" has a teen model car of the Maxwell Species, he drives to school and "buns" home.
- "Al" Berley Self made politician gone wrong, no money, no platform was his downfall.
- "Dave" Bloom Our authority on Madison Street and its sports-guzzler of beer, and lover of stories good and otherwise.
- "Al Brandt Alias "Jockey Dick" a sportsman deluxe, our challenge to Ben Hogan, is romancing in Kenosha, call your shots--Dick.
- "Dick" Brehm The mechanical Abe Lincoln of the Senior Class, "I'm out to outdo Taggart and his casting machine", ingrate.
- "Abe" Chedester "The Ogden Avenue Kid", has to outlive the class many times over to fulfill the Rip Van Winkle prophecy of Dr. Logan, 101 years -- "Connie".
- "Howie" Conrad The "childrens Hospital Romeo" will roam no more, he's tethered and tied.
- "Fabe" Faber Famous for his drop kicking glasses down Michigan Avenue, has quieted down considerably. It couldn't be the married life, could it, Franky?
- "Franky" Fagot The jag with the Gildarsleeve laugh whose big crate in the parking lot leaves little room for the rest.
- "Ed" Gawartowski Alias "Leonardo" an impersonator of instructions, is a quiet dental fellow whom all the spongers try to hit for tickets to the "Playhouse".
- "Len" Gigante Collaborator with Lambert in the writing of blaze, lous'y poetry.
- "Flash" Gorden Alias "Why wasn't I exempted from this exam" Grebliunas is so fast writing exams, he doesn't need to be exempted.
- "Speed" Grebliunas The denticio who wields a lightening disk as a Mochette. Now let's take the patient to the Suture Room.
- "Blondie" Greenbaum Gresik Our loose jointed profanist who possesses the best notare of all the jags.
- "Hermion the Vermin" The ceramics kid", whose favorite spot is Navy Pier. Between Varicose Veins, Thomas Bros. Hair treatment and "I only want a Buddy not a sweetheart", life was made pretty miserable.
- "Grotch" Grohowiak Alias "Hatstuff" a moocher of O. P. Cigs, and the ace high moaner of the class.
- "Mike" Guerrieri The South Sea Island lad who has more trouble with his love affairs than a mouse with kittens.
- "Yoshi" Harunaga Esquire of the Senior Class.
- "Charley" Hopkins A good looking jog from Kentucky who worked his way thru college jerk'en sodas and developing X-rays.
- "Bob" Ireland The honorary member of the A'O'S for three years, finally become a paid up member of the zips in his senior year.
- "Shadow" Jason "Didja ever hear this one" famous for his stories but he always gets furniture polish mixed with his apole polish
- "Marsh" Jostrom Dr. Vik's stooge who will some day get tangled in his own appliances.

- "Marty" Killoren Favorite by-line is "say are you gonna take the practical exams aver ogain next week"?
- "Kosy" Kosel A rather reserved jag who can always be found with Swantek and Onok in S. S. White's milking the duck.
- "Tony" Kotecki Mueller's mainstay in exoms, eats his own cooking (poor cuss) and is on ovid hound of the night spots.
- "Lambie" Lambert Collaborator with Gordon in the writing of blaze poetry, one of the wittiest of the nit wits.
- "Luke" Lukaszewski A hep cat and on exponent of Boogy Woogy.
- "Georgie" Matausek A gunner on the S.S. C.C.D.S. you'll probably find at a lathe polish a part on one of his many guns— Is that the way you get new patients?
- "Will" Mayo The great lover.
- "Johnny" Maskal The white haired laddy who needs a ladder in the clinics to reach his patients, and is in Ora I Surgery to get out of Dr. Kostrubala's reach.
- "Pres." Moss Heads the "pappy club" and does the family Orthodontio.
- "Bill" Mueller Kotecki's mainstay in exams, sells ladies shoes in the loop because he likes the sights and we don't mean the toll buildings.
- "Pizon" Neglia Originator of the "Max Club" bonzalate and artifue. His line to the patients is really out of this world.
- "Bill" Onak Our alopeciac friend who is easy to spot in a crowd, a good hearted Joe and he loves the root fill work at the Convent.
- "Ed" Perrone The dark haired lady killer from "Joisy". May go into the recording business with Shor. "Mommy I want a Salerno Butter Cookie".
- "Jerry" Piekos A quiet lad whose success is indicated by the Blue Key he wears. Now boasts of a beautiful wife.
- "Res" Resnik An instigator of the first water-argues with Dr. Vlk about everything.
- "Andy" Sauer A product of the north side campus, Andy has met with much success at C. C. D. S.—his latest is an appointment to the Public Health Service. It is rumored that he will undergo a major operation before commencement.
- "Ervie" Schwartz —Alias "Everything happens to me", an advocate of the Bloom for Vice-President campaign.
- "Pappy" Seitz His paternal duties have certainly quieted him down, who can forget his birthday at the County Morgue.
- "Jae" Shor His many accomplishments have won him the respect of oll. Quality is the keynote of Joe's success.
- "Schmidke" Smejkal "I'm working my way through dental school selling photos" and Joe Shors erstwhile competitor.
- "Steg" Stegmaier Alias the Sleeping Beauty is going back to Minnesota to make dentures for the toothless milk cow.
- "Little Joe" Swantek Always the ogitator, isn't hoppy unless he can egg someone on to a fuss and who made Lake Michigan his roctrock.
- "Bill" Tener A "Country Man" loser of 3 engagement rings He's morried now and quite docile.
- "Mike" Tilka The Skidmore of East Chicago, and the Rip Von Winkle of the Senior Closs
- "Mole" Trace Stooge to Dr. Atkinson, challenger to Sea Biscuit, and bears the brunt of Bortz's heckling.
- "Hippo" Vlk The bad rumor man who is a big man with big honds and a line that is bigger than both.
- "Bill" Voigt From Mexico City—likes his taquila straight—tought Steg all those nasty swear words.
- "Bob" Williams Says, "Woter is poison", and whose theme song is "How Hard is the Floor of the Yocht Club."
- "Steve" Woynovitch A boton wielder who grinds the ivories in the clinic and tickles them at dances at night.
- "Jitterbug Joe" Ziolkawski a rather reserved chop, unless he's at a party, where he's the life of it.

Junior Class of 1943

1940

With mysticism and ignorance, in the Fall of 1939, our class, the largest in the school, set forth with endurance to trample the road of the chosen profession, dentistry. The year although shadowed by the dreaded clouds of the new great war, was saturated with wonders and amazements in the various courses studied. Our hilarious parties were highly successful both financially and socially in that they unified the personnel of our class. The year ended with a costly loss to our esteemed faculty in the deaths of Dr.s Rudolph Kronfeld, and Thomas Grisamore.

1941

Into the second year we plunged with a timidless precarious attitude hoping to conquer successfully the difficult subjects which lay ahead. As each course ended our march came closer to our objective, the well known yet dreaded infirmary. With the effort of Dr. H. Johnson time was set aside for Yule time celebration which left in the heart of each student a memory of laugh and happiness. Then the last day arrived, a day on which our foot stood on the threshold between despair and happiness, our last class in physiology. This year ended with our beloved Dr. Kendell retiring from active teaching leaving his post to a gallant scholar Dr. George Wessinger.

1942

Then finally came the junior year, where the indomitable fright of the student battled his determination to perform the first prophylaxis. Those two points were indeed precious to the tongue-hanging weary operator. They were to him the first step to a pyramid of infinite height, the junior requirements. Yet, those things which existed in possibilities in the mind of the student have now become actual. The serious conduct, aptness, and digital dexterity personified the results of his future practice.

Junior Class

- George Alles Believes his wearing a Hitlerian soup strainer will ultimately win the war for the Greeks. He says this is a psychological move to increase animosity towards Germany.
- Jase Almaguer Will consider it his greatest achievement in school if he could lay Wally Sir flat in one blow.
- Romeo Arra Works nights now; he does the laughing for villains on radioscripts.
- Myran Ataman Discontinued working nights because it conflicted with his broken back after leaving the clinic.
- Narman Balin Gets very frantic whenever he thinks of the danger of walking in a blackout with his red glaring nose.
- Howard Berg Just can't seem to understand why he didn't get married much sooner; and to think he missed so much.
- Gilbert Blahnik Often says, sighingly, "Durn it, back home in our town the cows and the girls are much better than here".
- Thomas Boyd Prays that the priority board will let him have the motorbike as soon as he saves 30 cents more. He can get in and out of class faster.
- Elden Bueche Will think twice before answering yes mam to Dr. Glupker. The experience is memorable isn't it Elden?
- Gardan Burns Wife calls him Stuka, because when he comes out of a dive, he's pretty well shot.
- Alan Cass Only objection to the school management is no headrest of the seats in the amphitheater. "I can sleep alright", he says, "but it ain't comfortable and I mess my hair".
- Peter Caaper Is greatly worried. Judging by the amount of energy expended in the Clinic. Pete will have to suffer to earn enough after graduation to buy shoes for his baby.
- Mike DePalma Has the walk, but all he needs is a pair of water wings, a pan of water, and rubber gloves. What do we have? Ah yes, a duck.
- John Domeikis Has quit going to school dances, "De boys ain't gat no manners when I'm wit my goil".
- Julius Dziubak Has great hope in training the left eye to remain open while the right one takes as nooze during lectures.
- Earl Enright's Motto is "When the task has once begun, Hey what shall I do to get it done".
- Wallace Finch Is awfully puzzled nowadays; he has so many girl friends that he can't decide which one to play steady.
- Sidney Fishman Has the single men puzzled. The problem is "Why does Sid get to school so late now that he is married".
- Matt Franey Doesn't believe in the use of mouth mirrors. His simple method is, break the patients neck first, then with a jack carefully open the mouth about one foot, then with the tools in one hand spit on the other and let's work.
- John Frasco Is a hard worker. Not only does he work nights but also sells shoelacings in front of the County Hospital on Sunday afternoons.
- Ted Gasior Is always the last one to leave a banquet because it's a pity to throw away the left overs since he has his shopping bag handy.
- Tam Gillis Says he doesn't know what he doesn't know. He just doesn't know.
- Edward Griffin Ah—let's see if she, let us say, if she still sings here, SHALL WE? That's good Ed.
- Arthur Grunt Is sore nowadays. Trouble is Grunt grunts whenever the instructor grunts about Grunt's grunt in putting in foil.
- Joseph Hajdys Hello Joe, the kids think you're just grand.
- Cal Hayes Wonders if he should charge the farmers back home more for the amalgams he hopes to insert in their horses teeth. Just charge them for the material Cal—your service isn't worth much, Durn it.
- David Kaye Is not going to depend solely on dentistry for his livelihood. He says he's going to sell fish on Fridays to the Catholics in St. Patrick's parish.
- Victor Hershman Has finally solved the problem of conservation of time in moustache trimming. His method is lay the stencil over hairy area, then cut madly from the peripheral borders outwardly.
- Lester Janes Has little hope for the future generations. Jankus has been talking to him.
- John Jankus Isn't exactly lazy, but he's the kind of a fellow who will buy an axe for his wife's birthday and then hold the lantern while she chops the wood, provided, of course, his wife lights the lantern.
- Mathew P. Kloris Goes out with girls now. His mother doesn't care since he stopped eating little babies.
- Leonard Kraske Walks like an iron man now. He was placed in the Naval Reserves as an Ensign a few days ago.
- Robert Lagaria Is destined for the movies with his singing.
- Robert Lee Gets numerous dinner invitations from his patients. They pity him for his undernourishment.

Junior Class

- Marvin Lewison Would be the pride of MacArthur. Marv is a silent hard gunner.
 Vernon MacKay Will live to an old ripe age. Imagine being placed in class 1-A for weeks and say nothing about it.
 Raymond Marcus Just isn't himself after he gets a haircut. He appears to be like a chicken with its feathers removed.
- Bruno Maressa and Harold McGrane believe that the elimination of the other will remedy God's error in their creation. Ted Melcarek says he likes to go on a binge, because he feels so good the day after the day after.
 Richard Metzgor Wished he had a machine gun to shoot down some of the wild juniors during class meetings.
 Arthur Montouri Inspected his shirt cuff during an examination and muttered, "Damnation, I've put on my Oral Pathology shirt instead of my Orthodontia one".
- Ted Malachowski Explains his clinical difficulty in that he has too few women patients. "They inspire me onward," Says Ted.
- Charles Navich Hopes someday to become a diagnostian. He says in his modest words, "It's Heaven to be in the examination room".
- Frank Oliver Doesn't know it yet because it's a secret; sh-h the class is going to give him a watermelon when he graduates.
- Aurelius Pagano Shylyng asked his first question in Oral Pathology last week to Dr. Weinman; in direct quotation he said, "Marron, why do de teets haf Hypo-plazia"?
- Ralph Pagana Hasn't been named "tiger" for nothing. Irregardless of conditions, he'll meet anyone, anywhere, anytime—at tea.
- Rameo Pallatto Has signed a contract with MGM to play in a new picture, "We Boys from The South Side".
 Albert Petrizzi Will not be able to make ends meet, the year after graduation unless he earns $25,000 per. Al peels his grapes before eating them with a fork.
- Edward Peich Is the beaver of the class. He built a strong dam around himself somehow.
 Lon Porter Still remains Dr. Fouser's challenger in dress. Sometimes we wonder if his clothes are self designed since they appear years before time.
- Andrew Patempa Will soon lecture to the Freshmen about the history and development of the Tird Molar.
 John Purcell Has awful luck with his good looking fem patients. As soon as he registers them they become familiar with the other fellows.
- Eugene Puzzkiewicz Hopes to practice in Boston. He says, "My object in life is to seek culture not money". Gene, are you still putting in many thumb amalgams in your cellar?
- Walter Ream Would not want to become a commercial pilot. He says it's too much a fly by night proposition.
 Michael Ritz Stopped stealing instruments. He thinks bootlegging is a much more profitable profession. Ah-yes Mike.
- Walter Sir Has a new method in obtaining asepsis in root canal therapy. Place the dam on first, then with your syringe puncture the dam and give the local.
- William Sawle Entered the infirmary recently with a fat lip and a race track around his right eye. That's right, his wife Lois beat him up again.
- Arthur Sturm Doesn't say much about women—But brother can he pick em.
 Jack Tattelman Is expected to defend his pugilistic title against aggressive Al Cass this summer. Tiger Pagana will referee. Proceeds will be used to defray hospitalization.
- Joseph Trampota Misses the comforts of the large amphitheater in that once he could wander off and sleep in wide open spaces.
- George Walker Is the worst kind of a man. He now shaves once a week rather than usual bi-monthly plan.
 Lloyd Walty Knows exactly how many steps he walks in the clinic. He just wants to see if the shoalesman was lying about leather wear.
- Edward Wolf Still has many problems to solve. One of these is how to teach the patient to call for Mr. Wolf not Mr. Fox, as some did.
 Roman Wally Is expected to walk up the aisle soon. After kissing his girlfriend for the first time, she turned and said to him, "Roman, I hope you meant it."

Sophomore Class of 1944

1941

Inauspiciously, a heterogeneous class of ninety-two men became initiated into the professional world of dentistry one October evening in 1940. It took but a short time to respect the tremendous task confronting them prior to achieving that coveted goal—a D.D.S. degree. It was soon learned that the exactness of teeth carving, inurement to the company of cadavers, the juggling of chemical equations and painstaking denture construction were but a mere prelude.

Emerging as capable standard bearers for our freshman year were Stacknick, president; Corbett, vice-president; Rimkus, secretary and Paule, treasurer.

1942

After losing the awe and bewilderment of the neophyte stage, the sophomore year brought the members closer to the more dexterous manipulation of the phalanges in the broad field of operative procedures plus the correlation of previous endeavors with the more theoretical medicinal phase. As the day of clinical application approaches, the students realize only too well that they will cease to be onlookers of today and yesterday but become the practitioners of tomorrow.

The class enjoyed a most successful year under the leadership of Shaheen, president; Waldman, vice-president; Justen, treasurer, and Nyboer, secretary.

Sophomore Class

- "Leo" Alegretti      Though deserving two grades in all of his freshmen courses he received but one. Sorry to see another good bachelor go berserk.
- "Bob" Avery          Besides his pugilistic achievements his dad is the best technician in the class.
- "Bull" Bielinski      Conscientious homework brought a potential dentist into the world.
- "Warren" Bierma      Brandt's left hand man, proved that the dutch are "cooking with gas"; here as well as in the Pacific.
- "Bennie" Bindermon      Proves that the slight of hand is faster than the instructor's eye. Could it be those questions in lecture are also from the magic archives?
- "Harold" Black        The stooge exceeds his master's ability in tricks at grades, and even in bowling.
- "Clary" Brandt        Clary, Clary, quite contrary
Be it shine or rain
No matter what the cause may be
He will make a Brandt campaign.
Is still searching for an Amazon beauty for the sophomore dance.
- Frank Brzesinski      Here's one class-mate that can 'clip you' and make you really like it.
- "Ed" Corelli          "Wonder if Gris-s will shoot us a quiz, today.
- "Al" Cholko            This mighty fine boy is our delegate to the Loyala Union.
- "Hugo" Chott          Hyper-secretion Peter is worried that he might remain a dwarf. What's the matter? Are all the gals too tall?
- "Pete" Conglis        The thin man with a fat sense of humor.
- "Bill" Connors        Would like to buy a cow for his ulcers but is afraid that Dr. Zoethout would pith the darn thing.
- "Jack" Corrigan        "Dunlap" wonders why they can't install a dental chair in Fern's. Should be handy.
- "Ken" De Lap          If you can't beg, borrow, or steal it, Diamond can get it for you wholesale.
- "Henry" Diamond      Our problem child has raised a mustache to hide his crib notes. An addition to his career—flying in the large amphitheater.
- "Junior" Doyle        If you're having trouble with that denture, Dave, Diamond will be glad to help you along.
- "Dave" Dunn          A big charoot, and a horn to tood—that's all he asks of life.
- "Ray" Dziubski        Early to bed early to rise, but he and the Chatanooga choo choo Just don't seem to compromise, better late than never, Dick!
- "Dick" Fey            Yessel our versatile master of ceremonies and herring-splitter), is the only man alive that can smoke a pencil and enjoy it.
- "Bill" Friedmon        Is looking for new partners in Physiology Lab. Wonder why?
- "Sam" Gelfond        Jim Gentilly, a trifle willy-nilly and sort of color blind
Wonder why the Navy doesn't mind?
- "Jim" Gentilly        "Strip gears" is the only man alive that could have oral surgery performed on his gluteus maximus.
- "Al" Gierz            The only night owl that lives during the day and survives.
- "Al" Gillotte          Class—"In the future we will audition our orchestras."
- "George" Giudice      George—Wonder why?
- "Ed" Graves          If good looks are a criteria of success, here's one boy that will go along ways; still water runs deep.
- "Eugene" Greco        Famous last words "I do not choose to run." Sure was tough on Avery when he had to move away from always-capable Eugene.
- "Bernie" Gresik        "If I didn't have that kind of hair on my dog, I could have sold him."
- "John" Hazlit          Having recovered from his illness of last year, he's back in the groove once again. Sure didn't lose anytime in renewing acquaintanceships—women and more women.
- "Bob" Hulett          A carry over of the class of '26 a darn good one at that. Emory must be mighty proud of him.
- "Jim" Hurning        Jim, they do have gold in South Dakota! It's been sort of dry in Chi with the little women, here hasn't it?
- "Felix" Jurewicz      Wonder where Felix lives when he's not at home? Could be at Demos, the spot where the beautiful _____ girls congregate, that is according to him.
- "Paul" Justen        It couldn't be that Paul's fan mail requires two postoffices in the metropolis of McHenry. How are chances to see your little red book?
- "Tom" Kawka          Fuzzy-wuzzy, the human paint brush, combs his hair with a chamois skin.
- "Eb" King            Our capable dance chairman proved that a dance can be run without a loss, that is until the G-men got on his trail.
- "Bill" Kinney        Here's one boy that looks up to his girl, and I'M not kidding. Must be wonderful to be tall, so he says.
- "Milt" Klow          Could there be a reason for the shortage of towels at Pres?
- "Len" Kowaleski      The BrunoVille flash. Len claims a shot before every class makes it fun the time to pass.
- "Wes" Kraay          "It was love, not draft evasion", says Wes.
- "Zen" Krol            Streptococcus—ssssssss—veridas—ssssssss. Try your whistle on ambidextrous sometime.
- "Paul" Krokil        Our ten percent man that never neglects his capitalistic enterprises but surely does his women.
- "Ike" Landes        Dates a girl by the name of Jerry.

- "Arson Larson" uses his hands like a parson.
Seems quite strange that "Gunner" is forever commuting to Indiana Harbor—must be research.
Weren't you embarrassed, Virg? Imagine somebody passing the Navy physical with an upper denture.
Be calm, Hyman, de 'buns' of Brooklyn will come thru someday.
Alexian Brothers Hospital's pearl diver.
Lone-eagle, God's gift to women.
Our lad from buck-town. Matousek's only neighbor in lab who doesn't borrow.
Is thinking of repealing the lend-lease bill, at least in lab A.
"Hey, Doyle, let's cut and go to a show."
Doyle—"Naw! Let's go to our lab in Dudley's."
Dr. Johnson wants to know what kind of an apple that was you gave him.
"Turnabout" Missak is always gunning at home. Could it be that he's afraid someone might finish their technic earlier?
"Clay-Piper Moiphy" is still looking for Rose O'Day.
Here's one Dutchman that stays out of dutch in Zoethout's class. He Hopes, Hopes, Hopes.
"Oh, so the pipes did freeze; but I also lost my appendix in the process."
The Polish politician, alias "Larry Peters". The gals sigh, "What a Man!"
"Let me sit next to you in the exam!"
Our fugitive from a seminary waiting for the time he can render a nerve block on his patient thru a "sermon".
The "scottish loddie" exclaims, "I don't believe a word of it, now this is the explanation."
Our cultured bartender swings in high society at the opera.
Classmate—"Louder please, Roy, there is someone in the far corner that can't hear your ba-last.
"Doctor, that's not true, we didn't do it that way at Northwestern."
"Schrodsky", the man who fought the second battle of Richmond in Lab A. Bet he'll be glad to see those state boards.
"Feather-weight Butch" says, "Women? High School stuff. Bah!" The gals friends wonder how one man can be so sweet and yet so ornery.
Really can't figure out why he and Dr. Grisamore agree to disagree so often. Some one has to lose the battle—one guess as to the winner.
"Little Gun", The clever little diplomat who lets the women do his talking.
Our speedy technician, calmly reiterates, "guess I'll take a vacation for a couple of weeks and let the other fellows catch up."
Better late than never, John, that is, whenever you can spare the time to actually spare the time to come to class.
Here's one man that hopes that Dr. Zoethout is his first patient.
"Wonderful Smith", the sanitary engineer, thinks a lecture is nothing more than a lullaby.
Our sophisticated bartender of the 504 Club, never takes a drink-alone.
Our freshman year prexy, has no fear of being drafted. His brother is a local board member.
Yes, always a politician.
"I think I'll buy an interest in the theater business, it would be cheaper in the long run."
It is through trial and error that we achieve our goal—some attain it, if not, there's always burlesque.
The "chamber maid" of Lab A, can't figure out how the lab can become so messy in the course of a "Sit down you jerk!" Ed's renowned words in a certain lecture.
The Hammond flash wonders why they can't win the war without him . . . Pulse—132. Reason: Ann Oshian.
Could it be that the books are such a load that dad has to share sonny's troubles.
The Boston eagle, flies pretty high at the Psi Omega house—by the way maybe Dr. Grisamore doesn't know you have a teacher's license.
Tichosis—might be the fault of falling hair.
Proves that wine, women, and song—plus metallurgy creates that high blood pressure.
The mild uncomplaining (a distinct rarity here) chap bowls for what ails him.
Our honor student from the North Campus quotes, "Holy cow, but these lectures are long". Don't you like chemistry, Ralph?
"I think we ought to appoint a committee to take care of the matter".
"Oink oink's" handsome facial characteristic are only excelled by his brains. But don't let it fool you, he's not that dumb.

Freshman Class of 1945

1941

The Freshman Class met for the first time in the large amphitheater for the Convocation on Tuesday evening, the last week in September. As the months have gone by, we have been formally introduced to Anatomy, Histology, P.-Chem., Dental Anatomy, Dental Materials and Prosthetics. We give our sincerest thanks to our professors who have been so helpful and understanding in tolerating our many mistakes.

As the first year draws to a close, we find that the fifty-seven individuals who were spread throughout the large amphitheatre that first night have developed into one cooperative group. Under the leadership of our class officers: John O'Connell, Pres.; Lou Northouse, Vice-Pres.; Dominic Mistrretta, Secretary; Bob Black, Treasurer; and Orv Knitter, Sergeant-at-Arms, we have had a most successful year, both scholastically and socially. Faced with what seemed like unsurmountable obstacles, we have advanced upon them slowly but with determination until most of them have been leveled. With this same spirit, we turn towards the sophomore year with confidence in our school and ourselves.

Freshman Class

- "Bones" Bielinski He's Boogie Woogie King of the keyboard at one of the well-known local night spots.
Bob Black He's looking forward to owning a tin hat and a whistle in his new capacity as air raid block warden.
- John Boles The Joliet boy who's always getting jagged.
"Richie" Bosack Lindbloom High must specialize in chorine and "26" girls—at least Richie seems to know them all personally.
- Charley Bourque Spends much of his time looking for an eligible young French Mlle.—can't you help him?
Phil Brandner From out Bronx way—he'll be pulling for Brooklyn this summe..
Charley D'Andrea You ought to see him jitterbug.
Andy Fash If Ritter makes units like automobiles, Andy will be able to service his own.
Lew Feldstein When he approached his draft board
With his hundred page brief,
He was mistaken for a lawyer
Who was seeking relief.
- Milt Fuchs The fellow who insists on verifying all positive statements.
Paul Gazarek The Rube Goldberg of the class—invents merry-go-rounds and other things "just for fun."
Bob Griffiths Tried making a plaster life mask and was minus eyebrows for several weeks. (Wrong mix, Griff?)
Dick Handschu The professor of the class who spends his evenings (some of them) teaching English to the foreign born in night school.
- Jack Hannell He exists from vacation to vacation. It couldn't be love, could it, Jack?
Jack Heinz He doesn't boast of "57 varieties", but the one he does talk about is good enough for us.
Sam Herman A sailor once told him, ere he died,
(It may have been truth or he may have lied)
But Herman relates with a grin and a gleam
How the whole blamed issue went up into steam.
- Ted Jankowski What would Saturday be without Ted and his bean dinner—an old New England custom?
Jed Jedlowski Admiral Jed is the first man of the Freshman fleetin' C. C. D. S. to be sworn in as an Ensign U.S.N.R.
Happy sailing, Jed.
- Fred Kaufman Is there a Mr. Kaufman in the house?
Ed. Kazubowski No more draft worries for "Big Ed"—he's in the Navy now.
Andy Kelleher He'll be wielding a hand piece this summer for C. C. D. S. in place of a ball bat for the Jersey City Giants.
- Bob Kiechler When Bob gets that far-away-look, it has something to do with Maxine.
Orv. Knitter A walking dissertation of Myology produced by Charles Atlas.
Lloyd Konen Takes much pride in his accomplishments in the line of animal husbandry on his father's diary farm in Wisconsin.
- Bruno Kowalik His knowledge of anatomy is amazing. Wonder where he learned it?
Ernie Laenertz What's the big attraction at the Chicago House in Wheeling, Ernie?
Bill Lancaster Just because there are frogs in Lab. B, it's no excuse for the fishing tackle box, or are you just getting in trim for professional life?
- Laurie Lucas What kind of wave set do you use on your hair, Laurie?
Tom McAuliffe Tom believes in starting from the ground up. He sells shoes in his spare time.

Freshman Class

- Mac McDonald When Mac enters the elevator, the operator counts by threes.
John Misera His thoughts are in Cincinnati most of the time with a fair young thing.
Dominic Mistretta He was quite proud of his first pair of shoes, but finds, nevertheless, that Chicago sidewalks are harder on the feet than the Florida swamps.
John Negrevski I am short, stocky, and have dark curly hair (What there is of it!) and work for the Holland, Michigan, Chamber of Commerce. Who am I?
Roy Newman The iron man of the class, manages to work nights, go to school and finally take unto himself a wife, all in one semester. What do you do in your spare time, Roy?
Chuck Niblick If Chuck invents a dental instrument, it will probably be called a Niblick iron.
Wally Niedzwiedek For short, Nietedszywieodeck.
Lou Northouse An erstwhile pedagogue, he is attending classes in the capacity of a student for the first time in five years.
John O'Connell Not to be confused with a famous concern on South State Street.
"Ooops" O'Malley We have to look twice in some of our classes to distinguish the Jeep's bold head from those of the professors.
Bob Oppice Bob has quite a reputation to live up to, if he intends to follow his father's footsteps.
Frank Panico Frank, like his famous father, planned to tickle the ivories only in a different profession.
"Flexor" Pawlowski Specializes in cubical engineering.
George Petty The Utah Eunuch with his voice of croaking glass.
"Kayo" Pitzer We all turn to Kayo for his fatherly advice. He's the other married man in the class.
Dick Remijas We hope he can learn something about setting teeth by watching the pin-setters in the bowling alleys.
Chuck Ridenour Dr. Holmes is quite perturbed over Chuck's lack of sleep.
Ray Rux Ray gained far-reaching fame from a scholarly dissertation for Dr. Girsamore Intramembraneous bone formation.
Jimmy Sedlackek He is a star salesman—at least when it comes to selling Freshman dance tickets.
Thad Siemon He should be a chiroprapist; he's an authority on the "hot-foot" — Ask the gnome.
Boyce Smith Smitie deserves much credit as handler for our vaulting champ, the Jeep.
Dick Sochowski So the Aorta is a branch of blood? How about that, Dick?
Harold Stackler He's a nice quiet boy, so Dr. Holmes says.
Ralph Suriano When reprimanded for searching his inferior meatus with the phalanx of his fore-finger he replied "I'm just having a little fun on my own hook."
Bob Vegter He has a diomond on the third finger, left hand of a young lady in Michigan.
Stan Wawroski The anatomy wizard of the class, he assists Dr. Fouser in the laboratory.
Warren Wright He must have gone to Business School—at least he chews gum in a steno's reputed manner.
Mike Zakula The Minnesota timber wolf ran true to form at the Freshman dance.
Ed Ziolkowski The class authority on the Vth and VIth cranial nerves. Just ask him.

What Is It That Makes a Laboratory Fine?

In every dental laboratory there is some sort of compromise between quality and price. If you operate on a price standard you sacrifice quality. If you operate on a quality standard you sacrifice low price.

AMERICAN PREFERS TO LET QUALITY BE THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

Always, American builds as finely as it can—and lets the price fall where it may. That is why American Service cannot be duplicated at or near its price. If you want American esthetics and quality, you must buy American Service.

Question How much does a CDX X-Ray Unit Cost?

Answer Cost of any x-ray unit equals initial price plus repair bills minus probable trade-in value.

18 years of performance prove that CDX with a somewhat higher initial price, needs little or no repair and has a trade-in value higher than any other unit.

Cost of a CDX = as little as or less than any other x-ray unit on the market.

Accelerated Dental Educational Program Effective June 29, 1942

TO MEET the demands being created by the war, the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, Dental School of Loyola University, announces that a program of accelerated dental education will begin on June 29, 1942.

1. Freshman students will be admitted to begin class on June 29, 1942, and again on October 5, 1942. Those admitted in June will graduate in August 1945, while those beginning in October will graduate in December 1945.
2. The same requirements for entrance will be enforced; namely, a minimum of sixty semester hours of approved college credit, including one year in each of the following subjects: English, chemistry, biology, and physics, and one-half year of organic chemistry.
3. Education will be on a quarter system, each year to consist of four quarters, of eleven weeks each. Thus each student will be in attendance for forty-four weeks of each year for a three-year period.
4. There will be no diminution in the quality and quantity of instruction heretofore given in four academic years.
5. There will be no increase in tuition and fees.

It is felt that accelerated education in the fields of health service will avert a shortage of dentists and physicians to care for the needs of the armed forces and the public, and the standardizing agencies of dental and medical education have approved this procedure.

MOLDENT is a methyl methacrylate composition. Moldent has been-formulated to meet the exacting requirements of a denture base material and has been used successfully by dentists and laboratories for over four years. Moldent is one of the original denture base materials of the methyl methacrylate type having been demonstrated at The Mid-Winter Clinic of The Chicago Dental Society in 1938. The innumerable features and "fool-proof" qualities of Moldent make it the outstanding contribution to the denture base field since the introduction of the acrylic type of material. Some Moldent advantages:

- is "free from stress and strain"—hence never checks a tooth.
- eliminates porosity and pits entirely without the use of any additional "trick" liquids to be painted on the teeth or added to the monomer.
- is fast setting . . . ready to pack within 2½ minutes.
- "Moldent clear" is crystal clear.
- contains no ingredients of doubtful toxicity.
- is laboratory controlled.
- can be had in a range of colors and granulations.
